Estimated total variance under DISC and traditional RCS designs, including a large uniform covariate, and comparing variance using an unadjusted linear model vs. a complex DRDID model adjusting for covariates